LEADERSHIP FOR LIFE WORKSHOP
July 10-23, 2011

A woman with long, wavy brown hair, wearing a white top, is smiling broadly. Next to her is a man with short, graying hair, wearing a dark blue t-shirt, looking directly at the camera with a neutral expression. They are positioned in the foreground against a background of a view of Earth from space, showing the Americas and a bright sun in the upper left corner.

THE RUDE AWAKENING

LIVE

The Rude Awakening is an intense, passionate and exciting two week journey toward a new definition and experience of what true leadership means for each person in their sphere of influence.

We are constantly teaching those around us what we believe about ourselves, others, and the world, and more often than not we complain about the results, thinking we are not 'getting it'. In this leadership training, we accept responsibility for the inherent power we have.

LOVE

We make a choice about 'giving it' proactively with family, friends, and finally the world.

We come to terms with the existential dilemma of the purpose of our existence, and have the opportunity to address life long issues. ACIM states that all of us have a 'special function', a particular and unique life purpose. This is a workshop committed to embracing the entirety of our unique human life experience and using every nuance of it to reveal this purpose, then act on it. We bring ourselves into a state of absolute congruity, in alignment with the world and discover a profound sense of wholeness, clarity and direction. Your Life becomes an adventure because it is one. This will be the most exciting two weeks of your life as well as the most important.

DREAM

WHAT CAN I EXPECT?

The Rude Awakening is a workshop for graduates of the Awakening. It is an international workshop, with students coming to Vancouver from all over the world. The relationships formed over 2 weeks with other participants, assistants and facilitators are much deeper. This depth affords a more thorough experience of pioneering a path through the levels of defense in your psyche and freeing you to an alarmingly honest and spectacular view of your inner self and your ultimate purpose beyond yourself. The pace allows for more integration time, with the workshop in session for the first 5 days, the weekend off, and then for the next 5 days. Ideally there will be some free time in the afternoons to relax, meditate and enjoy the pool, tennis court, trails and hot tub at the center. The weekend is normally an opportunity for our visitors to explore the city as well as having a more adventurous optional activity together.

The only happiness we ever experience is when we position ourselves in alignment with the world and God at the same time, as a 'giving' contributor to whatever situation is in front of us. It is the transmission of this divine energy into the world that allows us to be in a state of creativity, connection and love. The 'creativity' comes through us, the 'connection' is the relationship to others this creativity seeks, and 'love' is the result of combining these two primal elements together

The experience of love emerges as we are willing to give of our selves, in whatever unique form we are meant to in the various situations of our lives. We did not create love, we can only experience it by letting it be expressed through us. We are the instrument, not the song. We are the telephone, not the message. It is through embracing our unique function that anxiety transforms into excitement and passion, depression becomes purpose and compassion. We start calling the state of love and creativity home.

WHAT WILL I DISCOVER?

The Rude Awakening is a two week workshop starting at dinner on Sunday July 10, 2011 and continuing until the Saturday, July 23th, 2011. Most materials are provided, and you will be notified of extras to bring in advance. The workshop is residential with wonderful meals provided throughout the two weeks. Dress casually and comfortably for the workshop and get ready to change the world.

Your unique life purpose, and the excitement, passion and possibility that comes along with it. You will leave the workshop with greater vitality, committed to a year plan that addresses how you will implement your special function in the four quadrants of your life: Relationships, Self, Spirituality and the World. You will discover that indeed to 'get to where you want to go, you have to be where you are' first and foremost. You will reap the rewards of practicing discipline in all aspects of your life, driven by a positive goal that brings more expansive possibility with each step you take. The degree to which you embrace what you are currently in the middle of will equal the extent of your experience of the 'heaven' held hostage there.

A young child gets out of bed in the morning excited about the adventure that awaits, and as we embrace our life's purpose we re-discover the joy of truly believing that

TODAY ANYTHING IS POSSIBLE!
